

14th Annual HSCI Retreat

Tuesday, May 21, 2019, 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Faculty co-chairs: Jon Hoggatt and Vik Khurana

Harvard Medical School, Joseph B. Martin Conference Center,
77 Avenue Louis Pasteur, Boston, MA

AGENDA

8:00–9:00	Registration and continental breakfast	12:00–1:00	LUNCH served in the 2nd floor lounge. Discussion tables with Moving On speakers (first-come, first-served basis)
9:00–9:50	Keynote address by PETER MARKS , Director, Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research (CBER), FDA	1:00–2:00	Trainee talks as selected by retreat co-chairs from abstracts (must be submitted by April 12)
9:50–10:20	Journey through research to clinical trial: the Retigabine story. KEVIN EGGAN, BRIAN WAINGER, CLIFFORD WOOLF		Audience votes for best presentation
10:20–10:40	90-second video pitches: Audience votes for 'People's Choice' award	2:00–3:30	Poster session, pre-function area
10:40–11:00	BREAK	3:30–4:00	Special address: "A problem for our community to solve," by DOUG MELTON , Co-Director of HSCI
11:00–12:00	Moving On: talks by former HSCI trainees. What lessons did they learn with us? How does their experience with HSCI shape their current work? STEPHEN CURTIS, JESSICA MCDONALD, FELICIA PAGLIUCA, JOEL SCHNEIDER	4:00–4:45	Keynote address by BETH STEVENS , Associate Professor, Boston Children's Hospital
		4:45–5:00	Wrap-up by retreat co-chairs: Prizes announced for video pitches and trainee talks.
		5:00–6:00	Reception in the poster area

1000 scientists, one goal: finding cures

Register: bit.ly/HSCI2019reg

Poster abstracts: bit.ly/HSCI2019abstract

Deadline for submission: Friday, April 12