

THE BUSINESS OF REGENERATIVE MEDICINE: How to Build a Company

July 11 - 13, 2016

Harvard Business School
Boston, MA

For details and registration:
BRM2016.hsci.harvard.edu

This 2.5 day course will focus on the critical issues associated with conceptualizing, developing, and building a company in the field of regenerative medicine. The course is intended for business executives, investors and analysts, technology transfer and development personnel, senior and junior scientists, managers in the government, non-profit and for-profit sectors.

Delivered by scientific and industry leaders with a depth and breadth of expertise unrivaled in this area, this comprehensive and informative course will include lectures, case study analyses, panel discussions, networking and more.

SAVE THE DATE

Hosted by: HSCI HARVARD
STEM CELL INSTITUTE

How to Build a Company is the 9th program in the Business of Regenerative Medicine series organized collaboratively by HSCI, Case Western Reserve University, The Centre for the Commercialization of Regenerative Medicine, and the Parker Petit Institute at Georgia Tech.